Hugh Fullerton, Junior, Writes About

"OUR TEAM"

Pitcher is the Most Important Man on Nine, But When You Throw Wide, They Fan at 'Em Anyhow.

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JUNIOR,
(AGED 9).

Pitcher is the most important part of our team.

Hank Phil appointed me pitcher when we got up our team because I owned all the balls. Now Paul is pitcher, because I don't live there any more. When I go out there in summer I pitch and play short stop when Paul pitches. Paul can pitch better than I can, but he don't know as much about pitching. He is stronger and throws harder.

Once we were playing another kid team and I was pitching. Hank kept wanting me to pitch them over the plate and I wouldn't, because when I pitched them over the plate they hit them and when I threw wild they struck at them anyhow. That's the way to pitch to little kids.

Once when Dad took me on a trip with the White Sox I told Mr. Walsh about it, and he said that was the way to pitch to some clubs. He showed me how to pitch a spit ball, only I can't throw it hard enough to make it drop. Neither can Paul, and I don't think Hank Phil can.

When we play against clubs our own size I just put them over and make them hit the ball because they can't hit it hard. Sometimes the umpire won't call the strikes, and then Hank Phil makes him. Hank Phil is a dandy catcher. Sometimes when the umpire calls balls Hank chases him and we have Dutch and then Hank Phil calls the balls and strikes himself.

Our minister came to the house once and asked me if I knew my catechism, and I brought him the rule book. Mother says Dad put me up to do it.

The kids around where I live now don't know much about baseball. If we don't go back to the country this summer I'm going to get up a team and go out and play the Giants.

Once we didn't have enough players for two teams. So I pitched for one team and Paul for the other, and we won. Hank made four home runs. Pitching is hard work when the batters hit that way.

I "beamed" Jackson one day, and his mother won't let him play any more. Hank said: "Ah, gee, what you doing? Trying to break up the team?"

That's all I know about pitching.

N. D. CAPTURES ANOTHER

Lathrop Leads in Hitting in the Catholic U. Contest.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Notre Dame smothered Catholic university at baseball here Friday, winning by 13 to 4. The locals used three pitchers in an effort to stave off the onslaught of the western team's heavy artillery, but to no avail. Lathrop led in the hitting with four safe drives in six opportunities. Kelly, for Notre Dame, was hit hard, but did not seem to let out.

HIGH EXPECTS TO CAPTURE HONORS

Will Send Strong Bunch of Representatives to Northern Indiana Track Meet at Laporte Today.

A classy team represents South Bend high school at the Northern Indiana track meet at Laporte today, and chances for a win are bright.

Metzler has announced that the following men were to go on the trip: Andrus, Martin, Scheibelhut, Sweeney, Kelly, Moon, Leisure, Haven, Garfield, Scott, Allen, Whiteman and Wrightsman.

Andrus showed up good in the high hurdles last Saturday and will be entered in the sticks, the high and broad jumps, shotput, and pole vault. Out of this many chances "Andy" should land a few points. Martin will compete in the jumps and the low and high hurdles. Scheibelhut has been showing strong in the 100 yard dash and will be entered in that event in the meet.

Three good distance men will represent the locals. Sweeney in the half and mile, Kelly in the half and mile in the mile, should capture a few honors.

Leisure, the star dashman of the squad, will attempt to capture places in the 100, 220 and 440. Besides these strenuous events he is depended on in the relay to round out the quartet of speed artists. Leisure will be accompanied by Garfield in the 440. Garfield is also entered in the high jump, pole vault and shotput.

Scott has been showing fine at Notre Dame in practice and should clear the bar at about 11 feet in the pole vault.

Allen and Whiteman of the baseball squad will represent the tan and blue in the discus and their throwing powers acquired in the national game should be of some help in hurrying the "dish plate". Wrightsman in the quarter and relay rounds out the squad.

The athletes and students going will leave on a special car at 11:30 over the Northern Indiana. A car will return directly after the close of the meet while another will wait until after the oratorical contest and dance in the evening.

Several other players have marks slightly higher than those of the Kazoo boss but have not been in so many games and hence are not entitled to equal rank with the blonde leader of the Celery City outfit.

SURPRISE THEATER.
"Mabel At The Wheel", a Keystone comedy, will be the attraction at the Surprise today. "Mabel At The Wheel", a satire on the Grand Prix at Santa Monica, Cal., March 26, brings out almost all the Keystone stars and is made in two reels. Mabel Normand and Harry McCoy work in most of their comedy through the medium of racing automobiles. Mack Sennett sits up in the grandstands and does the country boob act while the inimitable Charles Chaplain plays a sort of a Desperate Desmond and is all over the place, puncturing tires, oiling the tracks, throwing bombs and doing everything imaginable. This is undoubtedly the Keystone success of the year.

It is said the picture abounds in funny situations and is characterized throughout by the swiftness of action, which has made these comedies so popular. "Risen From The Ashes" is a one-reel Rex drama and the plot in this new endeavor is to prove enjoyable. The young wife thinking her husband dead, collects the insurance money and successfully continues his business. His return is well planned and their formation of a partnership seemed quite the proper thing.

J. Warren Kerrigan will appear on tomorrow's bill in a Victor drama called "The Lion" and "An Infant Heart Snatcher" is a Thanhouer featuring the Thanhouer Kidlet. "The Man Who Came Back" is a new Beauty release with Margarita Fischer and Harry Pollard with an able and popular cast.

TONGUES OF MEN.
Henrietta Crossman in "The Tongues of Men" at the Oliver Monday evening will probably be the last dramatic attraction of the season. Miss Crossman always brings a good play and an excellent company and in "The Tongues of Men" she is said to have one of the best vehicles of her career, so an enjoyable evening may be looked forward to.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
The bill at the Auditorium today include a two reel Essanay entitled "A Man For A' That," a drama of society, romance and sacrifice featuring Francis X. Bushman. Frank Willard, a wealthy clubman, becomes disgusted with society and determines to live among the poor. Early one morning he saw a newsboy give a beggar some pennies, so he discards his fashionable clothes and puts on a plain suit. Going back to the newsboy he tells the man that he is out of work and hasn't any place to go. He tells Frank he can stay at his home until he finds work. A few days afterwards he secures a job as a common workman. He becomes interested in his labor, also in the newsboy's sister Ruth whom he finally marries and reveals his identity and makes everybody happy. "In High Life" is an Edison comedy featuring G. M. Anderson. "Mike the Avenger," and "Doc Yak, Artillery Man" are two Selig comedies.
